Prayer Journey

Log Book

This book belongs to:

Excerpt from
The Pursuit of God
By A.W. Tozer

Lord, teach me to listen.
The times are noisy and my ears are weary with the thousand raucous sounds which continuously assault them.

Give me the spirit of the boy
Samuel when he said to You,
"Speak, for your servant hears."

Let me hear You speaking in my heart.
Let me get used to the sound of your voice,
that its tones may be familiar
when the sounds of earth die away and the only sound will be the music of your speaking voice.

Amen.

Station 1

Preparation

Things I don't need to carry anymore:

What am I worried about?

What am I afraid of?

Mistakes I've made:

Unrealized hopes and plans:

God's words for you at this station:

Station 2

Confession

Are there areas the Lord brings to mind as you're confessing your sin to Him?

What other areas is God revealing to you?

Station 5

A Starting Point

What are some of the AHA! Moments/ideas/discoveries that God has revealed to you this year?

Ask the Lord to help you flesh out some of these Aha! Moments from this past year, or to give you some new ones right now. Write down what you're hearing from Him.

Station 6

Messy Middle

In what ways do you think that you're in the "Messy Middle" of a new idea or calling from the Lord?

Ask the Lord for some steps you can take this year to work out the "Messy Middle."
Write down what you're hearing from Him.

Station 7

The Finished Product

Think of a time when you were able to see the finished product of the work God was doing in your life.

Do you remember a time when you veered from the path of the Lord? What changes do you hear Him calling you to make so that you can stay on this new path of calling from the Lord?
